2008

The purpose of the Blind Brook web site is to provide information related to the business and activities of the district and its schools. This web site does not collect additional personal information about individual visitors or members from other sources. This means that a person can visit our web site and navigate through the site without giving us personal, identifiable information.

The district strives to keep information on this website accurate and current, but the information and services available on our web pages may include inaccuracies or typographical errors and improvements/modifications may take place at any time. We do not warrant that communications with the website will be uninterrupted or error-free or that any errors/typos will be corrected. The district makes no representations about the reliability, availability, timeliness, or accuracy of the website for any purpose. The web pages and information contained herein are provided "as is" without warranty of any kind. We reserve the right to make changes and update any information contained on this server without prior notice.

This web site contains links to other sites. While we strive to provide users with the highest-quality related resources on all of our sites, we cannot and do not ensure the quality or accuracy of the content to which we link. The district is not responsible for, does not endorse, and cannot ensure the accuracy of information on these outside web sites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the privacy practices of these sites. When you visit other web sites you will also be subject to the privacy policies and terms of usage agreements, if any, of that web site operator. The district's web site contains links to websites with materials that are protected by copyrights, trademarks, service marks, patents, trade secrets, or other proprietary rights and laws. Visitors may not modify, copy, reproduce, republish, upload, post, transmit, distribute, sell, license, rent, publicly display or perform, edit, adapt or create a derivative work of, in any manner, any material, content or design elements obtained from this site, including code and software. Notwithstanding the above, visitors may print or download the material from this site only for personal or non-commercial use, provided that the visitor does not republish the material and keeps intact all copyright, trademarks, service marks, patent and other proprietary notices. This website makes every effort not provide links to sites that:

- promote or exhibit hate, bias, discrimination, pornography, libelous material or otherwise;
- provide defamatory content;
- are associated with, sponsored by, or serving a candidate for elected office;
- are associated with product or business endorsements;
- contain chat or instant messaging functionality that may expose students to unsupervised contact with non-school personnel.

Portions of our website are wikis constructed by students for educational purposes only. While we may give approval for an outside web site to link to the district site when requested, we cannot control which web sites are able to display a link to the district web site. The appearance of a link to the district web site in no way implies support for the party hosting the web site by the school districts. Links to the district web sites that are placed on inappropriate web sites will be acted upon as soon as they are made known to the technology administrator.

We have no obligation to detect the presence of any Rogue Programming. Any downloading of software or other materials or any other use of the information on the web site is at your risk, and you are advised to take adequate precautions to minimize any loss to your system caused by Rogue Programming, including use of anti-virus programs and proper backup of files.

In connection with the use of our website you shall abide by all applicable federal, state or local laws, including those pertaining to such areas as libel, slander, defamation, trade libel, product disparagement, harassment, invasion of privacy, tort, obscenity, indecency, and copyright or trademark infringement.

The purpose of the district web site is to post information pertaining to the school district. Information that is not specifically sponsored by or related to the district will not be posted regardless of its nature. Commercial or non-profit events will not be posted unless said event has been officially approved by the district's Board of Education.
