Introduction

This plan was developed with the input of multiple District stakeholders in order to clarify the Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) framework of programs and criteria in the Blind Brook Schools. This structure will serve as a guide to administration, faculty, and families to enhance our identification and support of students in the Blind Brook Schools.

We would like to acknowledge the support of the Blind Brook Board of Education and Dr. Colin Byrne. We would also like to thank Ms. Rosemary Matthews, Consultant, for prioritizing this important work, and Mr. Jonathan Holub, Administrative Intern, for sharing the latest research as well as organizing and formatting this plan. We would also like to acknowledge the guidance provided by exemplar plans from the Byram Hills Central School District and the Scarsdale Union Free School District. Most importantly, we would like to acknowledge the administration and faculty of the Blind Brook Schools who have supported the creation of this document and remain committed to the structure and work necessary for its implementation.

Board Adoption Date: January 4, 2022

Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS)

A Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) is a framework designed to promote continuous student improvement through data-based problem solving. Utilizing evidence-based instruction, interventions, and assessment practices, MTSS ensures each student has the appropriate level of support necessary to achieve success.

Blind Brook School District's MTSS model will incorporate multiple components, including Academic Intervention Services and Response to Intervention.

Academic Intervention Services (AIS)

Academic Intervention Services (AIS) are New York State mandated supports provided to help students who are identified as at risk of not meeting the New York State and/or District learning standards in English Language Arts and Mathematics. Students are identified for AIS services through a review of multiple measures, including performance on New York State assessments, STAR Renaissance Reading and Math assessments, and other classroom assessments. The Blind Brook School District AIS program is a tiered system of interventions that utilizes a Response to Intervention (RTI) framework as the foundation.

Response to Intervention (RTI)

Response to Intervention integrates assessment and intervention within a multi-tiered prevention system to facilitate student achievement. The process begins with high quality research-based instruction in the general education setting provided by the general education teacher. Instruction is matched to student need through provision of differentiated instruction in the core curriculum and supplemental intervention delivered in a multi-tiered format with increasing levels of intensity and targeted focus of instruction, depending on a student's responsiveness. (NCRTI, 2010).

Response to Intervention (RTI) is the practice of assessing students, providing high-quality instruction/intervention matched to student needs, and reassessing students to make important educational decisions about the individual student. RTI represents an important educational strategy to close achievement gaps for all students, including students at risk, students with disabilities and English language learners, by preventing smaller learning problems from becoming insurmountable gaps.

Blind Brook – Rye Union Free School District
Multi-Tiered System of Supports Plan 2021-2022

A summary of the tiers is found below:

Tier 1 - Core Classroom Instruction

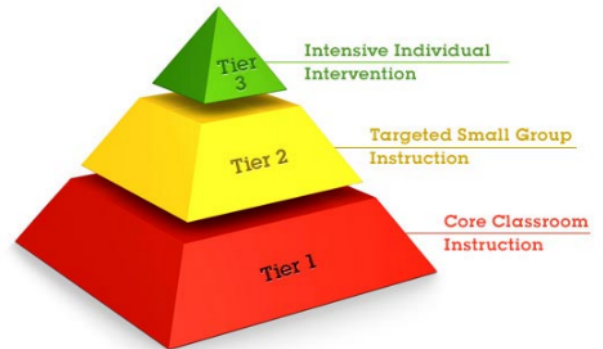

- Differentiated classroom instruction focused on meeting the individual needs of the student
- On-going monitoring of student progress

Tier 2 - Targeted Small Group Instruction

- Increased instructional time in designated subject area by a certified teacher
- Close monitoring of student progress
- Building-level related services

Tier 3 - Intensive Individualized Intervention

- Increased individualized instruction provided on the building-level and possible referral to the Committee on Special Education or Section 504 Committee

District implementation of Response to Intervention is guided by Blind Brook Board of Education Policy 7618, New York State Commissioner’s Regulations Section 100.2 (ii), and other federal and state regulations. The District’s RTI process shall include the following minimum requirements:

- Scientific, research-based instruction in reading and mathematics provided to all students in the general education class by qualified personnel.
- Screenings in grades kindergarten through eighth grade shall be provided to all students in the class three times a year (beginning, middle, and end) to identify those students who are not making academic progress at expected rates.
- Scientific, research-based instruction matched to student need with increasingly intensive levels of targeted intervention to meet age or grade level standards.
- Repeated assessments of student achievement which should include curriculum-based measures to determine response to intervention.
- The use of data collected by building-level RTI teams about the student’s response to intervention to make educational decisions about changes in goals, instruction and/or services, and the decision to make a referral for special education programs and/or services.
- Written notification to parents when the student requires an intervention beyond that provided to all students in the general education classroom.

Blind Brook Districtwide Approach

1. Eligibility

- Students at risk of or not meeting proficiency standards on New York State assessments
- Students not making adequate progress towards learning goals or the content standards in the core academic subjects
- Students not meeting behavioral expectations

2. Screening, Assessments, and Progress Monitoring

- Students, grades K-8, screened three times a year (September, January, and May).
- Students identified for tiered support assessed more often to monitor progress.
- A change in tier level may occur as additional data is collected.

3. Explanation of Services

- Services are determined by the entrance level criteria, student performance and recommendations by the building-level RTI Team.
- Duration of services is based on student performance as demonstrated by progress monitoring data, classroom performance, and/or New York State assessments.

4. Exit Criteria

- Students are exited from support services based upon a demonstration of appropriate progress towards meeting the grade level learning and behavioral goals and expectations using progress monitoring data, classroom performance and recommendations from the building-level RTI team.

5. Parent Notification

- Parents will be notified upon commencement of support programs beyond the general education classroom.
- Strategies, interventions, duration of services, and exit criteria will be outlined.
- Parents will be notified when services are no longer necessary.
- At any time, parents/guardians have the right to request an evaluation for special education programs and services.

TIER 1 – Core Classroom Instruction

Students defined as being “at-risk” based on the measures outlined at the beginning of the year, achievement on standardized or classroom assessments, or teacher referral. This includes those who show an ongoing need for supplemental support in basic academic skill areas.

Intervention Program	Teacher to Student Ratio	Teacher of Intervention
Differentiation and small group instruction in the general education classroom.	To be Determined by Teacher	Classroom, General Education Teacher

Exit Criteria

- Data on student performance is collected weekly and noted on the RTI Tier 1 student intervention plan.
- After 6-8 weeks of service, the teacher evaluates the overall effectiveness of the interventions used and determines whether to do another 6-8 week cycle or refer to Tier 2.
- Effectiveness of intervention may be determined by the administering Fountas & Pinnell Benchmark Assessment, STAR assessments, classroom assessments, or review of classwork.
- Services discontinued if the student has met state targeted needs and is achieving satisfactorily.
- Students who receive two cycles of Tier 1 support services should be referred to the RTI Team for review.

When to move to Tier 2

- If the data and teacher reports demonstrate that a more intensive program is required, the RTI Team will set targeted goals for the student, identify when the additional instruction will take place, and determine the frequency, session length, and duration of services.

PLEASE NOTE - These services do not interfere with a parent/guardian’s right to refer a student to the Committee on Special Education in order request an evaluation for special education programs and services at any time.
