

BLIND BROOK MIDDLE SCHOOL

DAILY BULLETIN

Monday, November 8, 2021 ("H" day)

Blind Brook Middle School won big at their first debate tournament of the year, defeating teams from some of the best schools in New York City and Westchester County, Blind Brook took home over a dozen awards at their first tournament of the year. As a school, BBMS won an award for Most School Wins as well as a 2nd Place award for Winning Percentage.

Blind Brook also took home individual and team awards:

Julia Mensch took home a 7th place Novice Speaker Award,
Pablo Zeitune and Jocelyn Zheng tied for 5th place Speaker Awards
JJ Sundheim and Luka Kisselev took home a 4th place team trophy
Valentina Flores-Gutierrez, Ana Mattinson, and Julia Mensch took home a 2nd place team trophy
Lianne Ferentz, Pablo Zeitune, and Jocelyn Zheng were the only team in the Novice Division to pick up a perfect record on the day, and earned 1st place in the Novice Division.
Kai Elliot, Darsh Gupta, and Rex Kanner also earned 3 wins on the day.
Ray Cao earned Blind Brook's top speaker award.
Harry Mattinson, Simon Riley, and Amaiya Singh were in 6th place and earned 3 wins on the day.
Kaitlyn Wong, Darren Wong, Sasha Jhangimal, Amrit Mohapatra, and Christopher Colby each earned wins which helped Blind Brook earn top team awards on the day.

The Blind Brook Debate Team meets on Thursdays at 2:45 PM in Room H214. They will be meeting on Tuesday this week. No auditions or tryouts required. All are welcome. Email Mr. Lewis at tlewis@blindbrook.org for details."

The lunch time bells are still not ringing at the correct time. A reminder that students should be dismissed for lunch at 11:37 am.

Today's Clubs:

Ancient & Medieval Board Games