

BLIND BROOK MIDDLE SCHOOL

DAILY BULLETIN

Thursday, October 21, 2021 ("E" day)

Did you know that spaghetti and meatballs is not really an Italian dish? Instead, it became a staple of Italian-American cuisine, developed by Italian immigrants to adapt their cuisine to what was already here. Italian immigrants discovered butcher shops filled with ground meat, a staple from the previous wave of German immigrants. Giada DeLaurentiis, Mario Batali, Rocco DiSpirito and Chef Boyardee are Italian-American chefs that have made contributions to our cuisine.

Hockey interest meetings will be held at Harrison High school on Thursday November 4th in the gym.

There will not be a Student Government meeting today. Links to FlipGrid videos will be available for students to view the speeches. Voting will take place tomorrow via Google form.

Next Friday we will be celebrating Halloween together. An email was sent to all students with details and the rules. We are looking forward to celebrating and having a fun day together!
