DAILY BULLETIN

Tuesday, September 28, 2021 ("E" day)

This morning's song was "Bailamos" by Enrique Iglesias. Enrique is a Spanish singer, songwriter, record producer, and actor. He started his recording career in the mid nineties and became the best selling Spanish language act of the decade. Iglesias is one of the best-selling Latin music artists with estimated sales of over 70 million records worldwide.<sup>[2]</sup> He has had five Billboard Hot 100 top five singles, including two number-ones. In October 2020, Iglesias was awarded the "Top Latin Artist of All Time" at the 2020 Billboard Latin Music Awards.

We are putting up our Hispanic Heritage bulletin board during lunch today. Come by to help us. We will be in the first floor hallway.

And now, it's time to award some of our own prizes for the Door Decorating contest. Homerooms did a great job representing this year's theme and we were very impressed with the range of creative ideas you came up with. While it was challenging to choose just one winner for each grade level, the votes are in. Congratulations to our winning homerooms:

8th grade: Sra. Hellman

7th grade: Mrs. Boutis

6th grade: Ms. Tamburro

Today is Picture Day! Students will get their picture taken during Math class. If you don't have Math today, you should get your picture taken during AAA.
